

MATTHEW DUCHESNE

I work in the Office of Environmental Management's Office of Compliance. I have overall programmatic responsibility for natural resource damages issues at sites within the EM complex, working closely with the Office of General Counsel, the sites and the Department of Justice. I also work on a range of issues related to compliance with environmental laws and regulations, as well as regulatory agreements that the Department has signed.