

Bio for November EA Conference

Barbara D. Williamson, M.S., J.D.

Barbara Williamson has 21 years experience interpreting environmental laws for DOE and government contractors. Barbara has background experience in the lumber/plywood industry, hospital industry, Washington State Attorney General for the Washington State Department of Ecology and Evergreen legal Services. She also has experience as an occupational safety and health consultation, nursing and art education.