

Brenda Hays, Attorney
DOE-Savannah River Operations Office

Brenda Hays is an attorney for the DOE-Savannah River Operations Office where she has been practicing principally in the area of environmental law for the past 16 years. She received her undergraduate degree from Winthrop University and is a University of South Carolina Law School graduate.

Prior to joining the Federal workforce in 1991, Ms. Hays worked in the local District Attorney's office where she prosecuted felony criminal cases and served as Deputy District Attorney for 5 years.