

National Day of Remembrance

Honoring Cold War Patriots

October 30, 2009
Savannah River Site
10:00 am

A man's country is not a certain area of land, of mountains, rivers, and woods, but it is a principle; and patriotism is loyalty to that principle.

~George William Curtis

National Day of Remembrance

Honoring Cold War Patriots

Savannah River Site

Friday, October 30, 2009

10:00 am

Agenda

Presiding	Jeffrey Allison Manager, Savannah River Operations Office U.S. Department of Energy
Presentation of Colors	Silver Bluff High School JROTC
Pledge of Allegiance	D. J. Ludwick Chukker Creek Elementary Student
National Anthem	Marybeth Berry Employee, DOE-SR
Invocation	W.J. Bryant SRS Retiree
Welcome and Introductions	Jeffrey Allison
Remarks	Dave Cowfer President, SRS Retirees Association
Remarks	Mal McKibben President, SRS Heritage Foundation, Inc.
Recognition from South Carolina and Georgia Congressional Delegation
Tribute and Closing	Jeffrey Allison
Musical Selection	Silver Bluff High School Band

*****

Following the program, guests are invited to browse the SRS Cold War artifacts exhibit and enjoy refreshments.

In honor of past, present, and future
Nuclear Weapons Program Patriots for their exceptional service to the safety and security of America

National Day of Remembrance
Savannah River Site
October 30, 2009

<http://sro.srs.gov/remembrance>